

Insurance Regulation in North America: Integrating American, Canadian and Mexican Markets

By Bradley J. Condon, Joyce C. Sadka, Tapen Sinha

Kluwer Law International. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Insurance Regulation in North America: Integrating American, Canadian and Mexican Markets, Bradley J. Condon, Joyce C. Sadka, Tapen Sinha, Trade Law The intersection of insurance regulation and trade agreements is of obvious significance to international competitiveness and, thereby, to national welfare. Yet until this masterful study the subject has remained virtually unexplored. Insurance Regulation in North America, far from merely addressing this important area of theory and practice, superbly balances a world of detailed analysis and commentary with deeply insightful interpretation and debate. The book's focus on insurance regulation in three countries allows the authors to approach the subject in an extraordinary depth that could not be achieved in a more global account. In the course of their treatment the authors offer the reader the following invaluable insights, among many others: analysis of the political dimension of reaching agreements and of implementing them; comparison of the three major trade agreements that apply in the North American insurance market - NAFTA, WTO agreements on financial services, and MEUFTA (the Mexico-European Union Free Trade Agreement) - with emphasis on the relationship between GATS and NAFTA principles; investigation of the clear convergence of regulatory...
