By Trevino L Brings Plenty

Backwaters Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Poetry. Native American Studies. These poems are porcupine quills, beautiful and sharp. They draw blood. They make me laugh and cry. I love this book. Sherman Alexie, Poet, fiction writer, screenwriter Trevino Brings Plenty s poetry ignites a sunrise, bearing witness to Indigenous America s most difficult and invisible realities. Faced with these urgent poems, we are again reminded of our constant fight for survival. Brings Plenty embarks on a telling that will inspire and challenge our notions of how we experience our modern colonial lives. Sherwin Bitsui, Author of Floodsong Reading Trevino Brings Plenty s poems is a head adjustment. As hard as these poems work to defy the stereotype of Native American spirituality, they also act like ceremonies new ones the anti-vision quest, spirit guide avoidance, songs to survive shame, good days NOT to die. Trevino Brings Plenty is no sham- shaman, but he is a healer and a true one. Heid Erdrich, Author of Cell Traffic and National Monuments Brings Plenty has come into his own power with this new book of poems. These...
