Realizing in some degree, the blessings they enjoy as citizens of this highly favored land, and deeply interested in the relation of events, which by the blessing of God, procured its independence, they make their request with particular reference to the history of their own country. In the choice of books, which claim their first attention, are most conducive to their improvement, and would constitute a profitable selection for a young lady s library, they feel, that your advice is highly deskable, and will be of lasting advantage to them, when they have finished their pupilage. They beg leave at this time, to...
