The Wish-ton-Wish is the name of a valley in which the Puritan Fathers settled; and the Wept One was a child stolen from her parents by the Indians. Dwelling among 1 lie savages, she shared, ns The foot, also of Carrara marble, has groups of soldiers, in the costume of the Middle Ages, clustered about it. Signer Monachesi is said to have been eleven years engaged in producing this magnificent specimen of modern mosaic. Other tables, of like character, will also be looked upon with interest, especially one intended as a present to her Majesty the Queen, from his Holiness the Pope. The pieta by Giacometti, --the Madonna, Magdalen, and St. John, bending over the body of the Saviour--holds the place of honour in this Court; while at the front and at the side are other pietas--that in the front by Schubert, and that on the other side by Achtermann, an artist so famous for this class of work, that he is known in Home as the Christaro (the Christ Maker). Galley s wonderful bas-relief of the Destruction of Pharaoh and his Host is one of those works on which a volume might be written, and still something be left unsaid; it is so full of suggestion, so admirable in conception, and so perfect in execution. In the Picture Gallery Borne shows well, and the artists cannot but gain largely in the world s estimation from the...
