Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Department of Defense Authorization for Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1997 and the Future Years Defense Program, Vol. 7: Hearings Before the Committee on Armed Services, United States Senate, One Hundred Fourth Congress, Second Session That is another reason why this subcommittee will hear from a second panel of contractor officials from major EM sites. We want to get the views and the suggestions of the folks that are on the ground across the country who are trying to address the cleanup and waste management challenges facing the Department of Energy. We must make this effort to better deal with the oversight of the EM program, especially if we want to justify this large expenditure of funds to the American taxpayer. Secretary Grumbly, as you know, I also have a special interest in the Department's efforts to fulfill its commitments to the State of Idaho regarding cleanup activities and the eventual shipment of all spent nuclear fuel and transuranic waste out of the State by the year 2035. This is a landmark agreement that will challenge DOE to open a new chapter in meeting its commitments and delivering real results. This agreement will also require substantial funding, and I look forward to discussing these requirements with you. The subcommittee will also hear from Mr. John Conway, Chairman of the Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board. The board has a proven record of addressing real problems in a factual, scientific way. We want to hear his assessment of how DOE has done since last year and what the board believes are deficiencies in DOE's safety performance and compliance with board recommendations. We want to know what...
