

Man of Many Passions

By Sagare

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rustum, a practising Barrister in London, meets a French visitor Francoise at the Bar of Blue Angel in Knightsbridge. During their brief meeting, Francoise challenges Rustum to a session of Kama Sutra if their paths cross again. Rustum buys and manages a coffee plantation near Kilimanjaro in the land of his birth. Out of the blue, Francoise self-invites herself to spend a month of continuous Kama Sutra sex with Rustum, departs happily, then severs all contact on reaching Paris. As he struggles to restore some normalcy to his life, Rustum is further destabilised when Francoise sends him a photo of a baby boy with a DNA Certificate naming him as the father, but warning him not to contact her or their son Jehan. On a business trip to Nairobi, Rustum meets American Doctor Susan, they get married, and Rustum builds a hospital for her on the plantation to continue her medical profession. When their son Raman is six, Rustum and Susan take him to Disneyland, Paris. They decide to have late breakfast at a Cafe...
